Numb. 7221.

Monday, November 7. 1724.

London, November 7.

On Friday Night late arrived three Mails from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Constantinople, October 20.

THE great Number of Ships the Privateers of Malta have taken from the Grand Signior's Subjects, incense the Porte more and more against them. 'Tis said that Captain Pascia has told the Prime Vizier, that the most effectual Way to prevent their cruizing in the Archipelago for the future, would be to keep some Sultanas and Gallies at Napoli di Romania, or in some other Ports of the Morea. 'Tis likewise said, that against next Spring a powerful Fleet will be fitted out for some great Expedition. M. d'Andrezel, the new French Ambassadour, is frequently in Conference with the Prime Vizier, and often entertains at Dinner the chief Ministers of the Grand Signior. Prince Ragotzki is now more than ever caressed by the Porte, and assists at all the Extraordinary Councils. There is a Report, that the Command of the Ottoman Troops in Persia has been conferred upon Mirriweys, and that the Horse's Tail has been sent him, which is the Mark of Distinction given only to the chief Bashaws.

Algiers, Oct. 30. On the 16th Instant, a French Tartan entered this Port, having on board 37 Chests full of Silver Coin, and one of Gold, designed for redeeming of the Spanish Slaves. The 21st past a violent Earthquake was felt here, which lasted about an Hour, but did no considerable Damage.

Dantzick, Nov. 24. On the 20th, the Council of this City met about the Decree issued from the Tribunal of the High Chancellour of Poland against the City of Thorn, and it was resolved to make suitable Representations to the King upon it, which were sent that very Evening by an Express to Warsaw; we are in Hopes that they will have so good an Effect, as to prevent the Sentence being executed with Rigour; 'tis even thought that none will suffer Death, unless it be absolutely necessary to sacrifice somebody to the Vengeance of the Romish Clergy. Since the Beginning of this Year 42746 Lasts of Corn have been imported, and 51864 exported.

Madrid, Nov. 27. On the 25th Instant in the Morning their Catholick Majesties with the Infantes went to the Church of St. Jerome at the Buen-Retiro, where was performed the Ceremony of Swearing the Infante Don Ferdinand Prince of Asturias; which was done after a solemn Mass had been performed: The Herald at Arms called up to the Altar the Infante Don Carlos to take the Oaths, which he did by swearing upon the Gospels before Cardinal Borja, and afterwards he took the Oaths of Homage before the King; the Infante Don Philip was excused from that Ceremony, by reason of his tender Age. Then the eight Bishops, who came to Town upon Account of this Ceremony, were called up; they swore upon the Gospels before the said Cardinal, and took the Oaths of Homage before the Duke de Escalona, Lord High Steward, whom his Majesty had deputed for that Purpose; after which the said Bishops kissed first the Prince's Hand, and then the King and Queen's; after them followed the Grandees of Spain, the Deputies of the Provinces and Cities who have Right to sit in the Cortes, and the Officers of the Crown, who all took the Oaths in the aforesaid Manner. The same Evening there were Fireworks in the Palace-Yard, and their Catholick Majesties, the Infantes and most of the Nobility, were in the Balconies of the Palace to see them let off. Yesterday in the Afternoon their Catholick Majesties, with the Infantes and many of the Nobility went in great State to the Church of our Lady de Atocha, where the Te Deum was sung, and at their Return to the Palace there were Fireworks let off; the same likewise was repeated this Evening. The Court has been out of Mourning these three Days, upon Account of the said Ceremony of Swearing the Infante Don Ferdinand Prince of Asturias, and every body appeared dressed according to the Regulation some time since published, forbidding the wearing any sort of Gold or Silver upon their Clothes. His Catholick Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Duke of Gandia and the Marquess de los Balbases Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber to the Prince of Asturias, they having had the same Honour under the late King Lewis. Letters from Cadix of the 21st Instant advise, that Captain Bowler, Commander of His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Argyle, had put in there from Newfoundland, and was soon to proceed directly for England.

Cambray, Dec. 2. The last Expects the Spanish Plenipotentiaries sent to Madrid was no sooner come back again with new Instructions, but their Excellencies held a long Conference with the Ministers Mediators, on the Subject of the Dispatches they have received.

Paris, Dec. 9. 'Tis assured, that Cardinal de Noailles has at last accepted the Constitution Unigenitus.

The Famous GOLDEN ESSENCE for the Hair of the Head and Perriwigs; being the most charming Perfume in Nature, and the greatest Preserver of the Hair in the World, for it causes that of Perriwigs to retain its Beauty, Strength, and Curl as long again as usual, and certainly keeps fair Hair from changing Colour, makes the Hair of the Head of Ladies and others, become incomparable fine and handsome, and immediately causes it to grow thick to Admiration, even upon Places that are bald by its Shedding; it assuredly changes red Hair to a fine pale Colour, and by its delicious Fragancy, enlivens all the Animal Faculties to a Miracle. It also perfumes Handkerchiefs excellently, and is now exceedingly esteemed by the Prime Quality of both Sexes. To be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, near Arundel-street End. Price 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY.

With which such vast Numbers of Persons are so miserably afflicted, being for the most Part deem'd an imaginary Disease, or only fancied Illness, 'tis no Wonder that all Remedies appropriated solely on that Principle should prove ineffectual; a violent Fever is not a more real Distemper than Hypochondriack Melancholy is, which proceeds, as that does, from an ill State of the Blood and Juices, as those only know, who being well acquainted with the Animal Oeconomy, and Laws of Mechanism, are sensible how much the Intellectual Faculties are affected by the good or bad Condition of the Fluids. On this Foundation the inestimable EXHILERATING ELIXIR was adapted, and on very large Experience found truly efficacious for the Cure of the Hypochondriack Disease in all sorts of Persons, even in its highest and most grievous Degree, where Nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or depraved, and where the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbations, Anxieties, and Despondency, even to Distraction. It's surprising to see how soon this Elixir, by regulating the first Digestions, and rectifying all the Juices, induces a new Train of chearful and pleasurable Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of undisturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chace away the whole Load of depressed and melancholly Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients seem suddenly relieved as it were from Inchantment; and now enjoying free and lively Spirits, steady, serene, and gay Thoughts, stand as much amaz'd that they could be chained down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them. In a Word, the Effect of this inestimable Elixir in every Uneasiness of Mind is inexpressible, as all who try it will most assuredly find. It occasions no manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and can be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, near Arundel-street-End, at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The GRAND SPECIFICK for Cleansing and Strengthening the Reins, &c.

Made Publick, after long and large Experience of its Power and Efficacy, for the common Good of all such Persons, Male or Female, that have any Relicks of Secret Injuries, Remains of pernicious unskilfully prepared Mercurials lodging in their Bodies, Gleets, or Weaknesses through tedious or ill-managed Cures of the Venereal Disease; or from Self-Polution, inordinate Coition, also any Weaknesses of the Vessels from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obstructions in the Urinary Passages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c. are perfectly cured by it, be they of ever so long standing: Which Relicks and Ailments are in part discovered by these following Symptoms, viz. Weakness and Pain in the Back, a Sharpness in the Urine, its strong Smell, Films or Hairs as it were floating about in it, and in some too frequent Occasion to make it; this Noble Specifick is also of singular and very Extraordinary Use and Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or even small Stones, Slime or any other Matter that obstructs the Urine, bringing all away in a few times taking, with Safety, and to the very great Satisfaction of the Patients, it also strengthens and recovers, after a peculiar Manner, all Relaxations of the Vessels, confirms the Parts, bringing all into right Order, and thereby perfects the Cure to Admiration. It's a very pleasant Medicine, and may be taken with Pleasure by the most Squeamish, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation; which is the Reason of its being made Publick, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Cases above-mentioned. One Bottle, in most Cases, is sufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will see by the Directions given with it. Sold for 7 s. 6 d. the Bottle, at Mr Lockett's Toyshop at the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury in the Poultry.

LONDON, Printed by S. Gray in Amen-Corner.
